

In This Issue

- Open Enrollment Ends October 31
- Lunch and Learn: Testing, Contact Tracing and Notification
- Election 2020 Workshop Today
- Virtual Panel on Sustainable Development
- Express FAFSA Service Days
- Personally Speaking: Africa's International Relations
- Resources for Managing Election-Related Stress
- Immigration-Related Travel for International Students and Scholars - ISSO Q&A Session
- Phi Kappa Phi "Love of Reading" Book Drive
- NSF I-Corps Funding Opportunity: Ventureprise Launch Virtual Fall Cohort
- Vetter Receives 2020 Reynolds Leadership Award
- Niner Central Assistance Anywhere
- CTL Resources and Workshops
- Resources for Instructors Teaching in Fall 2020
- Dissertation Defenses
- Latest AA News
- Upcoming Events

Open Enrollment Ends October 31

UNC Charlotte employees who are eligible for insurance benefits have until Saturday, October 31, to make State Health Plan and NCFlex benefits elections for the 2021 plan year. To get the coverage you need and to lower your health premium, you need to take action before the enrollment deadline. If you are ready to make your elections, log into eBenefits today. For more information and additional resources, visit the Human Resources Open Enrollment webpage.

Virtual Lunch and Learn: Testing, Contact Tracing and Notifications

You're invited to a virtual lunch and learn about UNC Charlotte's COVID-19 testing, contact tracing and notification protocols. This session will be particularly useful for faculty who are teaching courses with a face-to-face component or supervisors of staff who are working on campus.

Colleagues from Research & Economic Development, the Student Health Center, Safety and Security, Student Assistance and Support Services, Legal Affairs, Academic Affairs and Facilities Management will answer such questions as:

- What can I expect if one of my students/employees tests positive for COVID-19? Will I be notified?
- What does it mean to be a close contact?
- How long does a contact tracing investigation take?
- What privacy laws govern COVID-19 testing information?

There will also be an open Q&A session for additional questions. Please grab your lunch and join us for this virtual conversation. Space is limited, so please register early. For more information, contact ba-comms@uncc.edu.

- Wednesday, October 28, 12:00 - 1:00 PM (Register)

Election 2020: Research Political Candidates and Issues Workshop Today

With the 2020 general election fast approaching, it's important to know how to effectively research political candidates and issues. With so many sources of news and information, how do you know where to start? Election 2020: Researching Political Candidates and Issues is a workshop focusing on how to find and use credible non-partisan sources for elections and political news. During this virtual workshop, attendees will learn strategies for finding reliable information about political issues and how to apply those strategies. Today, Monday, October 26, 4:00-5:00 p.m. Register

