As a Matter of Fact: A Virtual Conversation About Issues That Impact Our Communities

UNC Charlotte in collaboration with the UNC Press presents "As a Matter of Fact" - Conversations with UNC Press Authors. Join Dr. Keeanga Yamahтта-Taylor, Assistant Professor of African American Studies at Princeton University, on Nov. 12, 2020, at 6 p.m. in conversation with UNC Charlotte's Dr. Lori Thomas about Taylor's 2019 book, Race for Profit: How Banks and the Real Estate Industry Undermined Black Homeownership. A finalist for the 2020 Pulitzer Prize in History and longlisted for the 2019 National Book Award, Race for Profit uncovers how exploitative real estate practices continued well after housing discrimination was banned. New policies meant to encourage low-income homeownership created new methods to exploit Black homeowners. By the end of the 1970s, the nation's first programs to encourage Black homeownership ended with tens of thousands of foreclosures in Black communities across the country. Narrating the story of a sea-change in housing policy and its dire impact on African Americans, Race for Profit reveals how the urban core was transformed into a new frontier of cynical extraction. 2020 Phi Kappa Phi "The Love of Reading Book and Supply Drive" Extended

November is the month for giving, so we have extended our "Love of Reading" Book/Supply Drive until Friday, November 13, 2020. Thank you to those of you who have already made a donation to one of our partner elementary schools. We hope that the rest of you will find it in your heart to purchase a book from one of the wishlists below and put a smile on a child's face today:

Reedy Creek Elementary: <https://www.amazon.com/hz/wishlist/ls/RFISKNLU6Q56?type=wishlist>

Niner University Elementary: <https://www.amazon.com/hz/wishlist/ls/3M8J5ESKKEY1G?type=wishlist>

After you select item(s) from the wishlist, you will be able to send them directly to the school during the checkout phase. In the shipping section, select the school in your "Other addresses," and then continue to your payment screen. If you have any questions, please reach out to Debra Diegmann, KDP Associate Counselor.

#WeBelongInCollege Scholarship

Students can help other students get through college by sharing their story and advice! The #WeBelongInCollege Campaign encourages students to share a story about a time when they questioned whether they belonged in college. A student's story can help others realize they are not alone, and even though we all struggle - we all belong in college. Faculty, encourage your students to share their story for a chance to win a $1,000 college scholarship! Read more.

Use Your Difference to Make A Difference

Tayo Rockson, Author, Diversity and Inclusion Speaker: Thursday, November 19

You are cordially invited to join the Office of International Programs in collaboration with the Office of Identity, Equity, and Engagement, and the Young Professionals of the World Affairs Council of Charlotte in welcoming Tayo Rockson, an advocate of finding the beauty in our differences and exploring ways to communicate effectively across cultures. Originally, from Nigeria, Tayo Rockson grew up as a "third culture kid" in five countries before beginning college. As a four-time TEDx speaker, Tayo's book, Use Your Difference to Make a Difference: How to Connect and Communicate in a Cross-Cultural World, was published in 2019 and inspires us to explore culture, masculinity, diversity and inclusion—and create action around it. Please register for the presentation here. Funding was generously provided by UNC Charlotte's Chancellor's Diversity Grant. Attendees will be entered for a chance to win a copy of Tayo Rockson's book.
